"Singer-guitarist Paulinho Garcia seduces listeners with his own style" Howard Reich, Arts critic

"Paulinho ought to be considered a local treasure..." Howard Reich (Chicago Tribune and LA Times)

"Garcia provides constant evidence of his mastery of the art of the Brazilian song. Endlessly inventive with styles, Garcia is an innovative composer with a firmly rooted tradition." Dave Miele (Jazz Improv magazine, New York)

"...He becomes the epitome of the solitary troubadour - a romantic figure hardly visible anymore even in Brazil, where, like everywhere else, popular music has grown busier, louder, and rougher. Garcia's voice, an airy baritone, has less shadow and a bit more energy than Joao Gilberto's and his languid chords and cleanly plucked lines illuminate the complicated rhythms with the cool clarity of moonlight..." Neil Tesser jazz journalist and author of "The Playboy Guide To Jazz"
